【Course Outline / Description】

This course aims at providing beginning level students with practical skills of Japanese language essential to their successful communication in various settings. This course aims mainly to develop speaking and listening skills, but part of the class time is spent on practicing kanji recognition and reading. In addition to the basic 224 kanji covered in JPN level 1-3, approximately 90 kanji that appear in the dialogues of Lesson 18 through Lesson 23 of Genki book will be introduced.

Section 2

【Course Objectives/Goals/Learning Outcomes】

This course aims at providing beginning level students with practical skills of Japanese language essential to their successful communication in various settings. The followings are some main grammar points learned in this course:

- Transitive and Intransitive verbs
- Honorific, Extra-Modest, and Humble Expressions
- Passive form
- Causative form
- Causative-Passive form
- Conditional expression, such as ～ば、～と
- ～ながら、～間に etc...

A variety of classroom activities are designed to help students acquire these grammar points as well as useful vocabulary words related to the topic provided in the textbook, and to improve all four skills: listening, speaking, writing and reading, with the emphasis on the first two in this course.

Assignments (Genki Workbook):

Check the course schedule every day and submit your assignment on the due date.

1. In order to receive full points, submit assignments at the beginning of the class.

2. The assignment submitted after the end of the class will be considered late (50 % will be taken off.)

Absence Policy:

It is critical that students attend classes regularly. Your final grade will be dropped 0.5 points for each absence. For example, if you miss 2 classes in total during the semester, 1 point will be deducted from your final grade points. Likewise, 0.2 points will be deducted if you are late for class. You must be on time for classes. Be in class by the time the start bell rings.
