【Additional Information】

For each class (after Lesson 5), the first half will be a lecture by the instructor based on the schedule above and the latter half will be presentation by a group of students who are to analyze and brief an assigned case in advance. The assigned cases will be relating to the topic that has been lectured by the instructor at least one week before and in which mainly Japanese multi-national corporations encountered before the courts in U.S. or other foreign jurisdictions. As strong emphasis is placed on class discussion, not only the students who are to make presentation, but also all other students, are required to come well prepared by reading the assigned cases as well as the relevant sections of the textbook.
