【Course Outline / Description】

This course examines literary texts/films and various forms of cultures from different countries of East Asian region (Japan, South Korea, China, Hong Kong, etc.). The range of the texts in this course includes fictions, films, photographs, documentaries, TV commercials, etc. and we will discuss these cultural productions vis-a-vis the intensive process of globalization in this region (roughly the early 1990s and onwards) as well as in the context of rapidly growing inter-Asian cultural flows we are facing now. Also, moving beyond the selected texts as part of the literary/art genre, we will envision how these cultural productions are inseparable from our living surroundings, and how, these texts shape social memories, traditional Asian values, gender roles, nationalisms, and historical traumas.

Section 2

【Course Objectives/Goals/Learning Outcomes】

This course aims to approach various examples of cultures from different Asian societies in the larger context of (East)Asia, past and present. The students are expected to understand the complex, intricate layers of different East Asian cultures and societies through cultural productions. We also aim to discuss the issues of translating literature/culture in the context of global cultural economy and its relations to the issues of national development and identity.

NOTE:

1. Asynchronous-Work (On-demand): Before our weekly Zoom Live Sessions you are required to read and/or watch assigned readings/films and post short responses on the Discussion Board @ Blackboard (*See “Asynchronous-Work” slots in the “Course Schedule” below). I will be gathering your Blackboard postings prior to our live Zoom sessions and respond to them when we meet online.
2. Posting Short Responses on Blackboard: After finishing your assigned readings and films (as per “Asynchronous-Work” indicated in our schedule every week), please post your comments and/or questions about the readings/films. These are informal response-postings aimed to show how actively you have been involved in the readings and films and also for me to address your concerns during our live Zoom sessions. This is a FREE WRITING WITH NO FORMAT (NO MINIMUM OR MAXIMUM WORD COUNT REQUIRED. JUST USE YOUR COMMON SENSE). You are free to write either/or short responses, confusions, questions that arose while you were doing the class readings (or after watching the films). You can also post MULTIPLE responses on a SINGLE text or film—just make sure that you post your responses within the assigned schedule indicated in the “Asynchronous-Work” slot. Over-due response postings will be discarded.
