

JAPANESE 4

【Course Description】

Prerequisite: Japanese 3 (or its equivalent)

This course is the fourth level in elementary Japanese. New students must pass a placement test in order to enroll. Students will continue to develop their Japanese from the foundational skills established in the pre-requisite elementary level courses. A variety of classroom activities are designed to improve all four skills: listening, speaking, writing and reading. Approximately 320 words and 150 kanji will be introduced. This course will cover Lesson 18 through Lesson 23 of Genki II Third edition, which is equivalent to JLPT* N4 or CEFR A2.2 level proficiency (speaking).

* The Japanese Language Proficiency Test

 The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages

【Course Objectives】

By the end of the course, students should be able to achieve the following objectives:

1. Students will be able to gain knowledge of basic grammar and idiomatic expressions commonly encountered in daily Japanese life, such as honorific and humble expressions.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate basic writing skills and ability to express ideas in coherent paragraphs.
3. Students will be able to read and write email texts, letters, short essays, etc.

2023 Fall Semester

Homework: The course schedule includes homework due dates. Read it carefully and submit your homework. Homework is accepted at the beginning of the class. After that, it will be considered “late”. For a late submission, there will be a 50% deduction if submitted before the next class starts. If submitted in or after the next class, no points will be awarded. Also, there will be a deduction if homework is incomplete, or if homework does not reflect your mastery of the subject.

Presentation: Details will be provided in class.

Quizzes: Frequent quizzes on vocabulary. There will be no make-ups for missed quizzes.

Lesson Tests: A lesson test for review. The lesson test consists of the sections of reading, writing, listening and kanji. Details will be provided in class.

Midterm Exam: Midterm exam consists of the sections of speaking and writing. Details will be provided in class.

Final Exam: A cumulative final exam will be scheduled for the last week. Details will be provided in class.

Class Performance: You will practice in class, as either individual practices or group practices. Active and informed participation is expected. Your preparation and review of the material for each class are essential because your preparation/review will directly affect your performance in the classroom. In-class assignments will also be graded as your performance in class. There will be a deduction if your active participation is not reflected in performance, such as using a smartphone, chatting in English with classmates, or leaving the classroom too often.
