FAQ

- Q1. Will I be required to acquire a visa to participate in this program?
It depends on your nationality. Please contact the Japanese consulate/embassy nearest you directly.
- Q2. Is there any screening process?
All applications will be screened by the committee. Students with no previous Japanese language study and those who have exceeded the course level of the program may be rejected.
- Q3. How about meal arrangements?
Lunches can be bought at on-campus cafeterias daily, except Sundays. Kitchen facilities are available in our student dormitory. Students are expected to cook their own meals.
Supermarkets as well as restaurants are available within walking distance.
Meal estimate for 6 weeks: JPY80,000
- Q4. Any other costs in addition to the program fee?
Miscellaneous: JPY50,000 (including transportation while you are in Japan)
- Q5. Is there a meeting service upon arrival?
Yes. However, please make sure to arrive on June 6 since the airport pick-up service is available only on this date.
- Q6. Will I get to meet/interact with Japanese local students?
Yes. There are many Japanese students living in the dormitory where you will reside. There will be additional events organized by local students.
