

Division of International Future Careers

▷ CURRICULUM

	First year	Second year
	Foundation of language skills and career development	Deepening and expanding expertise in their field of interest
Specialized Mandatory Classes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •English for Social Issues A~D •K.G.C. Basics A・B 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •English for Global Issues A・B •K.G.C. Basics C
Specialized Elective Classes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Seminar in Service and Hospitality •Color Coordination Practicum •Fashion Coordination Practicum •Doctor's Clerk Practicum •Bridal Business •Tourism Business •Airline Business •Hotel Business •Hospitality •Culture and Everyday Life •Introduction to Secretarial Studies •Practical Secretarial Skills •Informational Literacy A・B •Introduction to Information Processing •Career Planning •Career Development •Introduction to Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Research on International Companies •Japanese Expository Writing •TOEFL Seminar •TOEIC Seminar •EIKEN Seminar •PBL for Internship •Research in International Affairs A~G
Liberal Arts Education Classes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Human Rights Issues •Law (includes 2 credits for Japanese Constitutional Law) •Business Ethics •General Studies A~E •Sports and Health Science A・B •Volunteer Practicum A~E •Internship Practicum A~E •Chinese I・II •Spanish I・II •French I・II •Korean I・II 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Chinese III・IV •Spanish III・IV

*Course offerings are subject to change